

SUPPORTING A CANDIDATE.
(From the Kansas City Journal.)
"Mr. Fluhub, I am a candidate for your daughter's hand."
"Well, I'm unpledged, my boy. If a ballot is taken you can have my vote."

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Easier, Quicker and Without the Blister

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole, made of pure oil of mustarard in the form of a pleasant white ointment. It takes the place of the out-of-date mustard plaster, and will not blister.

Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosty feet, colds of the chest.

The Wise
Old
Bird

You Look As YOU FEEL

You know well enough when your liver is loafing.

Constipation is the first warning; then you begin to "feel mean all over."

Your skin soon gets the bad news; it grows dull, yellow, muddy and unsightly.

Violent purgatives are not what you need—just the gentle help of this old-time standard remedy.

Carter's TURKISH
PILLS
Quinine, Senna, Saponaria Bent Root
Calories faces often show the absence of iron in the blood.
Carter's Iron Pills will help this condition.

BRONX BOARD OF TRADE BUILDING CO. UNDER FIRE

Grand Jury to Investigate Charges Growing Out of Exchange for Bank Property.

Several wealthy Bronx business men have been summoned to appear before the Bronx Grand Jury to-morrow morning, when an investigation into alleged irregularities in the conduct of the affairs of the North Side Board of Trade Building Company will be started. Among those who will appear are J. Clarence Davies, President of the company; Charles W. Bogert, President of the Twenty-third Ward Bank, and Charles E.
Reid, Secretary of the Bronx Board of Trade.

Albert E. Davis, an architect, and Thomas J. Schabot, a retired merchant, who claim to represent minority stockholders in the company, have charged to the District Attorney that Mr. Davies and Mr. Bogert, with others who are stockholders in both the North Side Board of Trade Building Company and the Twenty-third Ward Bank, voted as building company directors to exchange the building of the Board of Trade for the bank building of the Twenty-third Ward Bank at One Hundred and Thirty-fifth Street and Third Avenue.

Davis alleges that the ground floor of the Board of Trade Building was kept vacant by the refusal of the officers of several others to lease it. This, he alleges, brought the company into financial difficulties, and to save foreclosure proceedings the exchange of the building was effected. He claims the Board of Trade Building was worth $110,000, while the bank building was worth only $20,000.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation and I am feeling better than I have for years."—Mrs. JAMES E. CLARKE, 3208 Juliet St., Box 20, Lorain, Mich.

Hancock, Wis.—"When suffering from female troubles nothing helped me until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now well and strong."—Mrs. ELLIS F.
BROWN, Hancock, Wis.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been making backache, women strong and well, relieving headache, nervousness, ulceration and inflammation, weakness, displacements, irregularities and periodic pains. It has also proved invaluable in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

All women are invited to write for free and helpful advice to Lydia E.
Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential),
Lynn, Mass.—Advt.

THREE WOMEN ONCE SICK NOW WELL

How They Recovered Their Health.

"I was a complete wreck from female troubles, backache, could not sleep, or stand for any length of time.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me strong and well."— Miss CARRIE DAVIS, R. F. D. No. 1, Box 20, Lorman, Mich.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound saved me from an operation and I am feeling
better than I have for years."—Mrs. JAMES E. CLARKE, 3208 Juliet St., Box 20, Lorain, Mich.

Hancock, Wis.—"When suffering
from female troubles nothing helped
me until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now
well and strong."—Mrs. ELLIS F.
BROWN, Hancock, Wis.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been making
backache, women strong and well, relieving
headache, nervousness, ulceration and
inflammation, weakness, displacements,
irregularities and periodic
pains. It has also proved invaluable
in preparing for childbirth and the Change of Life.

All women are invited to write for
free and helpful advice to Lydia E.
Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential),
Lynn, Mass.—Advt.

Twenty copies of the film "A Daughter of the Gods" are being shown at the United States Marine Hospital in New York.
General manager of them all.

An acting company has gone to St.
Augustine, Fla., where it will make the early scenes of a new B. S. Moss picture called "In the Hands of the Law."

The Pollard Picture Players have a studio in the Exposition Grounds at San Diego. They are using the structures built for the Panama Village.

Director Frederic Sullivan has just finished making Florence La Badie's latest film, "The Lonely Heart," for Thanhouser. It promises to be the best of the La Badie pictures.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a long illness. He was fifty-six years old and had represented a number of Texas newspapers until about three years ago, when he was compelled to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 22.—Charles A.
Edwards, for years one of the best
known Washington newspaper correspondents, died here last night after a
long illness. He was fifty-six
years old and had represented a number
of Texas newspapers until about three
years ago, when he was compelled
to give up active work. He had a wife

and two sons.

Death of Charles A. Edwards.<br